FORTUNA “CHILI SOCIETY” 2017 CHILI COOKOFF OFFICIAL RULES

1. True chili is defined by the Fortuna “Chili Society” as any kind of meat, or combination of meats, with or without beans, cooked with chili peppers, various spices and other secret ingredients, cooked into a spiced stew.
2. Health concerns are of primary importance. Cooking areas shall comply with applicable health requirements. The Humboldt County Department of Public Health, Division of Environmental Health guidelines for temporary food booth compliance are included with this packet. Call 707.445.6215 for clarifications. Health Department regulations are enforced.
3. It is NOT necessary for individual teams to obtain a permit from the County Public Health Department. The Fortuna Chamber of Commerce has obtained a group permit for the event. You will need an enclosed booth. Most canopy’s come with zipped or Velcro attached sides.
4. Consumption of alcoholic beverages on public streets is against the law.
5. Cooking teams can set up beginning at Noon. Teams will be assigned a slot on Main Street, between 9th and 12th Streets. Cooking may begin at Noon; however, offsite prep is allowed.
6. Officials will be on-site beginning at Noon to answer questions and give final instructions. Check in at chamber booths set up at either end of the closed street for your location.
7. Contestants are responsible for supplying all ingredients, cooking utensils, stoves or barbeques, tents and tables, a Health Department compliant booth and any other items needed for preparation of your chili. Containers for People’s Choice tickets will be provided.
8. The Fortuna “Chili Society” will provide 5 pounds of ground beef to the first 20 contestants courtesy of Humboldt Cattlewomen. Contestants need to provide bowls (anything but Styrofoam), spoons and napkins for 700 people.
9. Every member of your team must be willing to eat one 3oz cup of your chili prior to turning it in to the judges.
10. There are five judges. Judges love to be bribed, and will be visiting booths beginning at 3 p.m. looking for the BEST BRIBE, BEST DRESSED TEAM, BEST BOOTH, and BEST TEAM NAME.
11. Chili is to be ready for at 4:30 p.m. for judged TASTING. Each team will be provided with 5 containers (approximately ¼ cup) for chili tasting for the judges. No additional items can be served with the judge’s Tasting chili. Samples to be judged must be in the containers provided by the “Chili Society.” If you are competing in the Hottest Chili category, you should provide 2 additional samples, for a total of 7 containers
12. You can expect to have about 700 people sample your chili. Chili must be ready for the public by 5 p.m. PLEASE DO NOT SERVE PUBLIC UNTIL 5 P.M.
13. It is the responsibility of each team to clean their area and remove all garbage and property.
14. The decisions of the judges are final. WHINERS WILL BE DEALT WITH TO THE FULLEST EXTENT OF THE “CHILI SOCIETY” LAW.

Have fun and thank you participating in the 2017 Chili Cookoff.
